

The Evening Star is served to subscribers in the city by carriers, on their own account, at 10 cents per copy, or 14 cents per month, in advance. Outside of the city, it is delivered by express, at 15 cents per copy, or 18 cents per month, in advance. It is also delivered by mail, at 15 cents per copy, or 18 cents per month, in advance. All subscriptions must be paid in advance. All advertising rates, known on application.

MAY LEAVE PEKIN

Czar Gives This Permission to His Minister There.

TOLD TO DEMAND SAFE CONDUCT

China Warned of Grave Responsibility for His Safety.

LEGATIONS STILL BESIEGED

ST. PETERSBURG, August 11.—The Official Messenger today publishes the following:

The foreign office received a telegram today direct from M. De Giers, the Russian minister at the Chinese capital, from Peking. The dispatch was evidently taken by special courier to Tien-tsin from the capital of Shantung and was telegraphed August 7 by the local yamen.

M. De Giers announces that the siege of the legations continues, the besieged still having some provisions left. The Chinese government proposes to transmit the ministers' messages and that they leave Peking. As the ministers had not sufficient guarantee they replied that they must receive the permission of their governments before leaving the city.

The messenger then announces that the czar's approval has been given for M. De Giers to start for Tien-tsin with his staff and the marine guard on condition that the existing government at Peking and the emperor afford them sure guarantee that the journey can be undertaken without danger. At the same time M. De Giers is instructed to call attention to the heavy responsibility the Chinese government will incur should there be the slightest infraction of the inviolability of the persons accompanying him to Tien-tsin.

Renewed Attack on Legations.
PARIS, August 11.—The minister of marine, M. De Lanessan, has received from Admiral Courbet two dispatches confirming the news of the battles of Peking-tsun and Yang-tsun. One of them, dated Taku, August 6, and forwarded via the cable, mentions a rumor that the legations at Peking have suffered a renewed attack.

England Explains Her Purpose.
LONDON, August 11.—A special dispatch from Shanghai, dated Friday, August 10, says the British consul general, replying to protests of Chinese merchants against the presence of troops, explains that this is merely a precautionary measure, due to the fact that the disturbances north are spreading and coming daily nearer to Shanghai. He also says Kiangsu is already in a state of revolt and that at Tientsin there has been serious rioting, the telegraph station being burned.

The Russian government's permission to M. de Giers and his staff to leave Peking under Chinese escort, which the United States and other governments tell their ministers to hold out till relieved is the subject of much comment in London, where supposed Russian designs are closely scrutinized.

A special dispatch from St. Petersburg attributes to Russia the intention to fill Manchuria with troops and not to let go of the territory when the present rebellion is over. The Russian war effort, it is said, has cost 142,000 men and 242 guns in Siberia by the end of September.

Shanghai has received news from Chefoo that Tsin-tsin today, the British fleet from Taku is expected at Chefoo tonight.

The total number of allies in the province of Shantung is reported to be 114 guns. The total August 20 is expected to be 78,000, with 280 guns.

TRANSPORTS FOR CHINA.
Sailing of Vessels, Carrying United States Troops to China.

SAN FRANCISCO, Cal., August 11.—The transports Aztec and Stratheville will sail for Taku next Tuesday with over 1,200 cavalry horses.

The transport Warren, carrying troops for China, will sail August 16, and the Lehigh will leave September 1. The Sherman will be ready to sail by August 20, but may not leave until that date.

The Rosecrans will sail during the latter part of the month with the men of two light batteries, the horses and equipments of which will go on the Frederika.

The Belgian King will sail about the same time, carrying a siege battery of five guns on the way from Fort Riley.

All vessels will proceed to Nagasaki, where transfers will be made to other transports. Arrangements have been made to land the troops and animals may be landed at Nagasaki, if necessary.

Major Gibson, who arrived from the east to relieve Major Arthur as superintendent of the transport service.

Major Arthur has been ordered to China. Part of 1st Infantry Ordered to China.

NEW YORK, August 11.—The War Department has ordered companies C and D of the 1st Infantry to be stationed at Fort Leavenworth, to proceed without delay to San Francisco, to take transport for Taku, China.

The companies have been recruited to their full strength of 128 men, but are short of officers.

WILL ASSIST PERRY HEATH.
Carl Fischer-Hansen to Look After Scandinavians Vote.

NEW YORK, August 11.—Carl Fischer-Hansen has been selected to go to Chicago to take charge of the literary Scandinavian bureau at republican headquarters. He will be associated with Secretary Heath, and said today that he would address speakers who would address Scandinavian speakers in Minnesota, Nebraska, Illinois and the Dakotas. Mr. Fischer-Hansen will make his first public appearance in Chicago next Thursday night.

Colored Boothblack Shot.
NEW YORK, August 11.—Frank Davis, a colored boothblack, eighteen years old, was shot and killed today by Henry Young, twenty years old, in West 25th street. Young declared that the shooting was entirely accidental.

Fire at Rochester, N. Y.
ROCHESTER, N. Y., August 11.—An explosion in a jewelry store at Main and Aqueduct streets today started a fire which did $75,000 damage, and for a time threatened the business portion of the city. Several persons were severely cut by flying glass following the explosion.

Steamship Arrivals.
At New York, St. Paul, from Southampton.

At Queenstown, Umbria, from New York for Liverpool, and preceded by the Hamburg-Kaiser Friedrich, from New York, via Plymouth and Cherbourg.

At Glasgow-Corran, from Philadelphia.

No. 14,806.

WASHINGTON, D. C., SATURDAY, AUGUST 11, 1900—TWENTY-FOUR PAGES. TWO CENTS.

CHINESE LEAVE HONOLULU

FEAR REPRISALS FOR BOXER OUTRAGES IN CHINA.

Capt. Klemme Offers the Services of a Volunteer Company for Duty in Orient.

VICTORIA, B. C., August 11.—Honolulu advices are to the effect that many Chinese are leaving here, fearing retribution will be taken on them for the Boxer outrages. Chinese societies have passed resolutions condemning the Boxers.

The U. S. S. Iroquois has about completed the survey of the Midway Islands for the new cable station.

The German ship Gier arrived at Honolulu on July 27 and left three days later for China. Australian passengers state that the plague has disappeared from the cities.

Capt. Klemme forwarded by the steamer City of Peking letters and documents in regard to a military company he formed here for service in China. He offers 100 men and officers, or 100 men in all, accompanying the application to the National Guard.

The officers of the National Guard have also endorsed the project.

RAISED FACE OF NOTES.
Serious Charge Against Two Men and a Woman in Chicago.

CHICAGO, August 11.—Two young men and a young woman were arrested in this city by Captain Porter of the government secret service and city detectives on charges of raising and passing greenbacks. The men are charged with raising the bills, the woman in some cases with passing them. Those arrested are Thomas Kelley, alias Jones, a printer, eighteen years old; Axel Marx, who says his age is nineteen years, and Winifred, aged nineteen years.

The flat occupied by the three was raided and the outfits found there were confiscated. Some of the raised bills were found in the act of passing. The other was caught in the act of passing a $2 note that had been raised to $10.

Captain Porter asserts that the gang has worked in nearly every city of consequence in the United States.

FLOODS IN NEW SOUTH WALES.
Hundreds Rendered Homeless and Heavy Loss of Property.

VICTORIA, B. C., August 11.—News brought to the effect that terrible floods have occurred in New South Wales during July, as a result of which some hundreds of people were rendered homeless, while the property loss was enormous. People had to flee for their lives from the floods, while the result of years of toil were swept away in a few hours. Haystacks and the Napanee and other crops were destroyed.

At Sydney the board of health has recommended that clean bills of health be issued to the departing ships. The plague is virtually over.

The King of Tonga has issued a proclamation, according to a letter from there, proclaiming a British protectorate over the islands. Premier Soden of New Zealand visited there and attended the opening of the Tonga parliament.

EMMANUEL TAKES THE OATH.
Impressive Ceremony in the Presence of the Ailing Maimela.

ROME, August 11.—King Victor Emmanuel III took the formal constitutional oath today before parliament. The senate chamber was draped with mourning, the benches and tribunes being covered with black furnishings, bordered with silver. The chamber was filled with senators and deputies, royal missions, high officials of state and the diplomatic corps.

The booming of cannon announced the departure of the royal party from the Quirinal. All along the route large crowds were assembled and gave the new king an ovation. He was received on the steps of the senate by the committees of the chamber of deputies and senators in a pavilion specially erected and handsomely decorated.

When the cortege entered the senate chamber, the king being accompanied by the Duke of Aosta, the Count of Turin and the Duke of Salaparuta, the king and senators arose, and then began a long and exciting scene of enthusiasm. His majesty later took the oath and delivered an address.

The king, in his address, referred to the evidence of friendship and aid abroad and spoke of the friendship uniting Italy with all foreign powers. He said Italy will be a powerful instrument of concord and will assist in maintaining peace, and asked for the full confidence of the liberal institutions of Italy and be able, by his initiative and energy, to vigorously defend these institutions. He was warmly received by the senators and assured his hearers that he would work with all his heart for the grandeur and prosperity of Italy.

BOERS CONTINUE TO SURRENDER.
Others, However, Harass the British.

LONDON, August 11.—The war office today received the following message from Lord Roberts:

"PRETORIA, August 10.—Johannesburg reports that a patrol from the water works was attacked August 7.

"Buller occupied Amersfoort the evening of August 7. The enemy retired before the first line of defense, casualties about fifty killed, and few new stragglers.

"A cablegram of Admiral Remy, transmitting the report of Gen. Chaffee as to the capture of Yangtsun, together with the report of Gen. Gassalee, the English commander at the front, contains few details not already known. Gen. Gassalee's statement shows that the Chinese occupied trenches and that the foreign forces were compelled to assault them. Presumably, after forming their line the allies were obliged to charge over a stretch of territory, three miles in extent, directly into the teeth of the Chinese rifle and shell fire. The intense heat which prevails in that section of China at this season of the year gives to officials of the War Department a full realization of the arduous work which such a charge involved, and the news that there were many prostrations and deaths from sunstroke creates little surprise.

Next Move Unknown.
Perhaps the most important statement in the dispatch is the one to the effect that the next move of the allies is unknown. Whether Admiral Remy makes this statement is to be understood that that statement was included in Gen. Chaffee's telegram from the front, neither the officials at the War or Navy Department are certain. From the wording of the cable the general belief, however, is that it is Gen. Chaffee's own statement. It is known that the commanders of the allied forces, when they arranged for the advance from Tien-tsin, had agreed to make Yangtsun the objective. That statement was contained in Gen. Chaffee's telegram from the front, neither the officials at the War or Navy Department are certain. From the wording of the cable the general belief, however, is that it is Gen. Chaffee's own statement. It is known that the commanders of the allied forces, when they arranged for the advance from Tien-tsin, had agreed to make Yangtsun the objective. That statement was contained in Gen. Chaffee's telegram from the front, neither the officials at the War or Navy Department are certain. From the wording of the cable the general belief, however, is that it is Gen. Chaffee's own statement. It is known that the commanders of the allied forces, when they arranged for the advance from Tien-tsin, had agreed to make Yangtsun the objective. That statement was contained in Gen. Chaffee's telegram from the front, neither the officials at the War or Navy Department are certain. From the wording of the cable the general belief, however, is that it is Gen. Chaffee's own statement. It is known that the commanders of the allied forces, when they arranged for the advance from Tien-tsin, had agreed to make Yangtsun the objective. That statement was contained in Gen. Chaffee's telegram from the front, neither the officials at the War or Navy Department are certain. From the wording of the cable the general belief, however, is that it is Gen. Chaffee's own statement. It is known that the commanders of the allied forces, when they arranged for the advance from Tien-tsin, had agreed to make Yangtsun the objective. That statement was contained in Gen. Chaffee's telegram from the front, neither the officials at the War or Navy Department are certain. From the wording of the cable the general belief, however, is that it is Gen. Chaffee's own statement. It is known that the commanders of the allied forces, when they arranged for the advance from Tien-tsin, had agreed to make Yangtsun the objective. That statement was contained in Gen. Chaffee's telegram from the front, neither the officials at the War or Navy Department are certain. From the wording of the cable the general belief, however, is that it is Gen. Chaffee's own statement. It is known that the commanders of the allied forces, when they arranged for the advance from Tien-tsin, had agreed to make Yangtsun the objective. That statement was contained in Gen. Chaffee's telegram from the front, neither the officials at the War or Navy Department are certain. From the wording of the cable the general belief, however, is that it is Gen. Chaffee's own statement. It is known that the commanders of the allied forces, when they arranged for the advance from Tien-tsin, had agreed to make Yangtsun the objective. That statement was contained in Gen. Chaffee's telegram from the front, neither the officials at the War or Navy Department are certain. From the wording of the cable the general belief, however, is that it is Gen. Chaffee's own statement. It is known that the commanders of the allied forces, when they arranged for the advance from Tien-tsin, had agreed to make Yangtsun the objective. That statement was contained in Gen. Chaffee's telegram from the front, neither the officials at the War or Navy Department are certain. From the wording of the cable the general belief, however, is that it is Gen. Chaffee's own statement. It is known that the commanders of the allied forces, when they arranged for the advance from Tien-tsin, had agreed to make Yangtsun the objective. That statement was contained in Gen. Chaffee's telegram from the front, neither the officials at the War or Navy Department are certain. From the wording of the cable the general belief, however, is that it is Gen. Chaffee's own statement. It is known that the commanders of the allied forces, when they arranged for the advance from Tien-tsin, had agreed to make Yangtsun the objective. That statement was contained in Gen. Chaffee's telegram from the front, neither the officials at the War or Navy Department are certain. From the wording of the cable the general belief, however, is that it is Gen. Chaffee's own statement. It is known that the commanders of the allied forces, when they arranged for the advance from Tien-tsin, had agreed to make Yangtsun the objective. That statement was contained in Gen. Chaffee's telegram from the front, neither the officials at the War or Navy Department are certain. From the wording of the cable the general belief, however, is that it is Gen. Chaffee's own statement. It is known that the commanders of the allied forces, when they arranged for the advance from Tien-tsin, had agreed to make Yangtsun the objective. That statement was contained in Gen. Chaffee's telegram from the front, neither the officials at the War or Navy Department are certain. From the wording of the cable the general belief, however, is that it is Gen. Chaffee's own statement. It is known that the commanders of the allied forces, when they arranged for the advance from Tien-tsin, had agreed to make Yangtsun the objective. That statement was contained in Gen. Chaffee's telegram from the front, neither the officials at the War or Navy Department are certain. From the wording of the cable the general belief, however, is that it is Gen. Chaffee's own statement. It is known that the commanders of the allied forces, when they arranged for the advance from Tien-tsin, had agreed to make Yangtsun the objective. That statement was contained in Gen. Chaffee's telegram from the front, neither the officials at the War or Navy Department are certain. From the wording of the cable the general belief, however, is that it is Gen. Chaffee's own statement. It is known that the commanders of the allied forces, when they arranged for the advance from Tien-tsin, had agreed to make Yangtsun the objective. That statement was contained in Gen. Chaffee's telegram from the front, neither the officials at the War or Navy Department are certain. From the wording of the cable the general belief, however, is that it is Gen. Chaffee's own statement. It is known that the commanders of the allied forces, when they arranged for the advance from Tien-tsin, had agreed to make Yangtsun the objective. That statement was contained in Gen. Chaffee's telegram from the front, neither the officials at the War or Navy Department are certain. From the wording of the cable the general belief, however, is that it is Gen. Chaffee's own statement. It is known that the commanders of the allied forces, when they arranged for the advance from Tien-tsin, had agreed to make Yangtsun the objective. That statement was contained in Gen. Chaffee's telegram from the front, neither the officials at the War or Navy Department are certain. From the wording of the cable the general belief, however, is that it is Gen. Chaffee's own statement. It is known that the commanders of the allied forces, when they arranged for the advance from Tien-tsin, had agreed to make Yangtsun the objective. That statement was contained in Gen. Chaffee's telegram from the front, neither the officials at the War or Navy Department are certain. From the wording of the cable the general belief, however, is that it is Gen. Chaffee's own statement. It is known that the commanders of the allied forces, when they arranged for the advance from Tien-tsin, had agreed to make Yangtsun the objective. That statement was contained in Gen. Chaffee's telegram from the front, neither the officials at the War or Navy Department are certain. From the wording of the cable the general belief, however, is that it is Gen. Chaffee's own statement. It is known that the commanders of the allied forces, when they arranged for the advance from Tien-tsin, had agreed to make Yangtsun the objective. That statement was contained in Gen. Chaffee's telegram from the front, neither the officials at the War or Navy Department are certain. From the wording of the cable the general belief, however, is that it is Gen. Chaffee's own statement. It is known that the commanders of the allied forces, when they arranged for the advance from Tien-tsin, had agreed to make Yangtsun the objective. That statement was contained in Gen. Chaffee's telegram from the front, neither the officials at the War or Navy Department are certain. From the wording of the cable the general belief, however, is that it is Gen. Chaffee's own statement. It is known that the commanders of the allied forces, when they arranged for the advance from Tien-tsin, had agreed to make Yangtsun the objective. That statement was contained in Gen. Chaffee's telegram from the front, neither the officials at the War or Navy Department are certain. From the wording of the cable the general belief, however, is that it is Gen. Chaffee's own statement. It is known that the commanders of the allied forces, when they arranged for the advance from Tien-tsin, had agreed to make Yangtsun the objective. That statement was contained in Gen. Chaffee's telegram from the front, neither the officials at the War or Navy Department are certain. From the wording of the cable the general belief, however, is that it is Gen. Chaffee's own statement. It is known that the commanders of the allied forces, when they arranged for the advance from Tien-tsin, had agreed to make Yangtsun the objective. That statement was contained in Gen. Chaffee's telegram from the front, neither the officials at the War or Navy Department are certain. From the wording of the cable the general belief, however, is that it is Gen. Chaffee's own statement. It is known that the commanders of the allied forces, when they arranged for the advance from Tien-tsin, had agreed to make Yangtsun the objective. That statement was contained in Gen. Chaffee's telegram from the front, neither the officials at the War or Navy Department are certain. From the wording of the cable the general belief, however, is that it is Gen. Chaffee's own statement. It is known that the commanders of the allied forces, when they arranged for the advance from Tien-tsin, had agreed to make Yangtsun the objective. That statement was contained in Gen. Chaffee's telegram from the front, neither the officials at the War or Navy Department are certain. From the wording of the cable the general belief, however, is that it is Gen. Chaffee's own statement. It is known that the commanders of the allied forces, when they arranged for the advance from Tien-tsin, had agreed to make Yangtsun the objective. That statement was contained in Gen. Chaffee's telegram from the front, neither the officials at the War or Navy Department are certain. From the wording of the cable the general belief, however, is that it is Gen. Chaffee's own statement. It is known that the commanders of the allied forces, when they arranged for the advance from Tien-tsin, had agreed to make Yangtsun the objective. That statement was contained in Gen. Chaffee's telegram from the front, neither the officials at the War or Navy Department are certain. From the wording of the cable the general belief, however, is that it is Gen. Chaffee's own statement. It is known that the commanders of the allied forces, when they arranged for the advance from Tien-tsin, had agreed to make Yangtsun the objective. That statement was contained in Gen. Chaffee's telegram from the front, neither the officials at the War or Navy Department are certain. From the wording of the cable the general belief, however, is that it is Gen. Chaffee's own statement. It is known that the commanders of the allied forces, when they arranged for the advance from Tien-tsin, had agreed to make Yangtsun the objective. That statement was contained in Gen. Chaffee's telegram from the front, neither the officials at the War or Navy Department are certain. From the wording of the cable the general belief, however, is that it is Gen. Chaffee's own statement. It is known that the commanders of the allied forces, when they arranged for the advance from Tien-tsin, had agreed to make Yangtsun the objective. That statement was contained in Gen. Chaffee's telegram from the front, neither the officials at the War or Navy Department are certain. From the wording of the cable the general belief, however, is that it is Gen. Chaffee's own statement. It is known that the commanders of the allied forces, when they arranged for the advance from Tien-tsin, had agreed to make Yangtsun the objective. That statement was contained in Gen. Chaffee's telegram from the front, neither the officials at the War or Navy Department are certain. From the wording of the cable the general belief, however, is that it is Gen. Chaffee's own statement. It is known that the commanders of the allied forces, when they arranged for the advance from Tien-tsin, had agreed to make Yangtsun the objective. That statement was contained in Gen. Chaffee's telegram from the front, neither the officials at the War or Navy Department are certain. From the wording of the cable the general belief, however, is that it is Gen. Chaffee's own statement. It is known that the commanders of the allied forces, when they arranged for the advance from Tien-tsin, had agreed to make Yangtsun the objective. That statement was contained in Gen. Chaffee's telegram from the front, neither the officials at the War or Navy Department are certain. From the wording of the cable the general belief, however, is that it is Gen. Chaffee's own statement. It is known that the commanders of the allied forces, when they arranged for the advance from Tien-tsin, had agreed to make Yangtsun the objective. That statement was contained in Gen. Chaffee's telegram from the front, neither the officials at the War or Navy Department are certain. From the wording of the cable the general belief, however, is that it is Gen. Chaffee's own statement. It is known that the commanders of the allied forces, when they arranged for the advance from Tien-tsin, had agreed to make Yangtsun the objective. That statement was contained in Gen. Chaffee's telegram from the front, neither the officials at the War or Navy Department are certain. From the wording of the cable the general belief, however, is that it is Gen. Chaffee's own statement. It is known that the commanders of the allied forces, when they arranged for the advance from Tien-tsin, had agreed to make Yangtsun the objective. That statement was contained in Gen. Chaffee's telegram from the front, neither the officials at the War or Navy Department are certain. From the wording of the cable the general belief, however, is that it is Gen. Chaffee's own statement. It is known that the commanders of the allied forces, when they arranged for the advance from Tien-tsin, had agreed to make Yangtsun the objective. That statement was contained in Gen. Chaffee's telegram from the front, neither the officials at the War or Navy Department are certain. From the wording of the cable the general belief, however, is that it is Gen. Chaffee's own statement. It is known that the commanders of the allied forces, when they arranged for the advance from Tien-tsin, had agreed to make Yangtsun the objective. That statement was contained in Gen. Chaffee's telegram from the front, neither the officials at the War or Navy Department are certain. From the wording of the cable the general belief, however, is that it is Gen. Chaffee's own statement. It is known that the commanders of the allied forces, when they arranged for the advance from Tien-tsin, had agreed to make Yangtsun the objective. That statement was contained in Gen. Chaffee's telegram from the front, neither the officials at the War or Navy Department are certain. From the wording of the cable the general belief, however, is that it is Gen. Chaffee's own statement. It is known that the commanders of the allied forces, when they arranged for the advance from Tien-tsin, had agreed to make Yangtsun the objective. That statement was contained in Gen. Chaffee's telegram from the front, neither the officials at the War or Navy Department are certain. From the wording of the cable the general belief, however, is that it is Gen. Chaffee's own statement. It is known that the commanders of the allied forces, when they arranged for the advance from Tien-tsin, had agreed to make Yangtsun the objective. That statement was contained in Gen. Chaffee's telegram from the front, neither the officials at the War or Navy Department are certain. From the wording of the cable the general belief, however, is that it is Gen. Chaffee's own statement. It is known that the commanders of the allied forces, when they arranged for the advance from Tien-tsin, had agreed to make Yangtsun the objective. That statement was contained in Gen. Chaffee's telegram from the front, neither the officials at the War or Navy Department are certain. From the wording of the cable the general belief, however, is that it is Gen. Chaffee's own statement. It is known that the commanders of the allied forces, when they arranged for the advance from Tien-tsin, had agreed to make Yangtsun the objective. That statement was contained in Gen. Chaffee's telegram from the front, neither the officials at the War or Navy Department are certain. From the wording of the cable the general belief, however, is that it is Gen. Chaffee's own statement. It is known that the commanders of the allied forces, when they arranged for the advance from Tien-tsin, had agreed to make Yangtsun the objective. That statement was contained in Gen. Chaffee's telegram from the front, neither the officials at the War or Navy Department are certain. From the wording of the cable the general belief, however, is that it is Gen. Chaffee's own statement. It is known that the commanders of the allied forces, when they arranged for the advance from Tien-tsin, had agreed to make Yangtsun the objective. That statement was contained in Gen. Chaffee's telegram from the front, neither the officials at the War or Navy Department are certain. From the wording of the cable the general belief, however, is that it is Gen. Chaffee's own statement. It is known that the commanders of the allied forces, when they arranged for the advance from Tien-tsin, had agreed to make Yangtsun the objective. That statement was contained in Gen. Chaffee's telegram from the front, neither the officials at the War or Navy Department are certain. From the wording of the cable the general belief, however, is that it is Gen. Chaffee's own statement. It is known that the commanders of the allied forces, when they arranged for the advance from Tien-tsin, had agreed to make Yangtsun the objective. That statement was contained in Gen. Chaffee's telegram from the front, neither the officials at the War or Navy Department are certain. From the wording of the cable the general belief, however, is that it is Gen. Chaffee's own statement. It is known that the commanders of the allied forces, when they arranged for the advance from Tien-tsin, had agreed to make Yangtsun the objective. That statement was contained in Gen. Chaffee's telegram from the front, neither the officials at the War or Navy Department are certain. From the wording of the cable the general belief, however, is that it is Gen. Chaffee's own statement. It is known that the commanders of the allied forces, when they arranged for the advance from Tien-tsin, had agreed to make Yangtsun the objective. That statement was contained in Gen. Chaffee's telegram from the front, neither the officials at the War or Navy Department are certain. From the wording of the cable the general belief, however, is that it is Gen. Chaffee's own statement. It is known that the commanders of the allied forces, when they arranged for the advance from Tien-tsin, had agreed to make Yangtsun the objective. That statement was contained in Gen. Chaffee's telegram from the front, neither the officials at the War or Navy Department are certain. From the wording of the cable the general belief, however, is that it is Gen. Chaffee's own statement. It is known that the commanders of the allied forces, when they arranged for the advance from Tien-tsin, had agreed to make Yangtsun the objective. That statement was contained in Gen. Chaffee's telegram from the front, neither the officials at the War or Navy Department are certain. From the wording of the cable the general belief, however, is that it is Gen. Chaffee's own statement. It is known that the commanders of the allied forces, when they arranged for the advance from Tien-tsin, had agreed to make Yangtsun the objective. That statement was contained in Gen. Chaffee's telegram from the front, neither the officials at the War or Navy Department are certain. From the wording of the cable the general belief, however, is that it is Gen. Chaffee's own statement. It is known that the commanders of the allied forces, when they arranged for the advance from Tien-tsin, had agreed to make Yangtsun the objective. That statement was contained in Gen. Chaffee's telegram from the front, neither the officials at the War or Navy Department are certain. From the wording of the cable the general belief, however, is that it is Gen. Chaffee's own statement. It is known that the commanders of the allied forces, when they arranged for the advance from Tien-tsin, had agreed to make Yangtsun the objective. That statement was contained in Gen. Chaffee's telegram from the front, neither the officials at the War or Navy Department are certain. From the wording of the cable the general belief, however, is that it is Gen. Chaffee's own statement. It is known that the commanders of the allied forces, when they arranged for the advance from Tien-tsin, had agreed to make Yangtsun the objective. That statement was contained in Gen. Chaffee's telegram from the front, neither the officials at the War or Navy Department are certain. From the wording of the cable the general belief, however, is that it is Gen. Chaffee's own statement. It is known that the commanders of the allied forces, when they arranged for the advance from Tien-tsin, had agreed to make Yangtsun the objective. That statement was contained in Gen. Chaffee's telegram from the front, neither the officials at the War or Navy Department are certain. From the wording of the cable the general belief, however, is that it is Gen. Chaffee's own statement. It is known that the commanders of the allied forces, when they arranged for the advance from Tien-tsin, had agreed to make Yangtsun the objective. That statement was contained in Gen. Chaffee's telegram from the front, neither the officials at the War or Navy Department are certain. From the wording of the cable the general belief, however, is that it is Gen. Chaffee's own statement. It is known that the commanders of the allied forces, when they arranged for the advance from Tien-tsin, had agreed to make Yangtsun the objective. That statement was contained in Gen. Chaffee's telegram from the front, neither the officials at the War or Navy Department are certain. From the wording of the cable the general belief, however, is that it is Gen. Chaffee's own statement. It is known that the commanders of the allied forces, when they arranged for the advance from Tien-tsin, had agreed to make Yangtsun the objective. That statement was contained in Gen. Chaffee's telegram from the front, neither the officials at the War or Navy Department are certain. From the wording of the cable the general belief, however, is that it is Gen. Chaffee's own statement. It is known that the commanders of the allied forces, when they arranged for the advance from Tien-tsin, had agreed to make Yangtsun the objective. That statement was contained in Gen. Chaffee's telegram from the front, neither the officials at the War or Navy Department are certain. From the wording of the cable the general belief, however, is that it is Gen. Chaffee's own statement. It is known that the commanders of the allied forces, when they arranged for the advance from Tien-tsin, had agreed to make Yangtsun the objective. That statement was contained in Gen. Chaffee's telegram from the front, neither the officials at the War or Navy Department are certain. From the wording of the cable the general belief, however, is that it is Gen. Chaffee's own statement. It is known that the commanders of the allied forces, when they arranged for the advance from Tien-tsin, had agreed to make Yangtsun the objective. That statement was contained in Gen. Chaffee's telegram from the front, neither the officials at the War or Navy Department are certain. From the wording of the cable the general belief, however, is that it is Gen. Chaffee's own statement. It is known that the commanders of the allied forces, when they arranged for the advance from Tien-tsin, had agreed to make Yangtsun the objective. That statement was contained in Gen. Chaffee's telegram from the front, neither the officials at the War or Navy Department are certain. From the wording of the cable the general belief, however, is that it is Gen. Chaffee's own statement. It is known that the commanders of the allied forces, when they arranged for the advance from Tien-tsin, had agreed to make Yangtsun the objective. That statement was contained in Gen. Chaffee's telegram from the front, neither the officials at the War or Navy Department are certain. From the wording of the cable the general belief, however, is that it is Gen. Chaffee's own statement. It is known that the commanders of the allied forces, when they arranged for the advance from Tien-tsin, had agreed to make Yangtsun the objective. That statement was contained in Gen. Chaffee's telegram from the front, neither the officials at the War or Navy Department are certain. From the wording of the cable the general belief, however, is that it is Gen. Chaffee's own statement. It is known that the commanders of the allied forces, when they arranged for the advance from Tien-tsin, had agreed to make Yangtsun the objective. That statement was contained in Gen. Chaffee's telegram from the front, neither the officials at the War or Navy Department are certain. From the wording of the cable the general belief, however, is that it is Gen. Chaffee's own statement. It is known that the commanders of the allied forces, when they arranged for the advance from Tien-tsin, had agreed to make Yangtsun the objective. That statement was contained in Gen. Chaffee's telegram from the front, neither the officials at the War or Navy Department are certain. From the wording of the cable the general belief, however, is that it is Gen. Chaffee's own statement. It is known that the commanders of the allied forces, when they arranged for the advance from Tien-tsin, had agreed to make Yangtsun the objective. That statement was contained in Gen. Chaffee's telegram from the front, neither the officials at the War or Navy Department are certain. From the wording of the cable the general belief, however, is that it is Gen. Chaffee's own statement. It is known that the commanders of the allied forces, when they arranged for the advance from Tien-tsin, had agreed to make Yangtsun the objective. That statement was contained in Gen. Chaffee's telegram from the front, neither the officials at the War or Navy Department are certain. From the wording of the cable the general belief, however, is that it is Gen. Chaffee's own statement. It is known that the commanders of the allied forces, when they arranged for the advance from Tien-tsin, had agreed to make Yangtsun the objective. That statement was contained in Gen. Chaffee's telegram from the front, neither the officials at the War or Navy Department are certain. From the wording of the cable the general belief, however, is that it is Gen. Chaffee's own statement. It is known that the commanders of the allied forces, when they arranged for the advance from Tien-tsin, had agreed to make Yangtsun the objective. That statement was contained in Gen. Chaffee's telegram from the front, neither the officials at the War or Navy Department are certain. From the wording of the cable the general belief, however, is that it is Gen. Chaffee's own statement. It is known that the commanders of the allied forces, when they arranged for the advance from Tien-tsin, had agreed to make Yangtsun the objective. That statement was contained in Gen. Chaffee's telegram from the front, neither the officials at the War or Navy Department are certain. From the wording of the cable the general belief, however, is that it is Gen. Chaffee's own statement. It is known that the commanders of the allied forces, when they arranged for the advance from Tien-tsin, had agreed to make Yangtsun the objective. That statement was contained in Gen. Chaffee's telegram from the front, neither the officials at the War or Navy Department are certain. From the wording of the cable the general belief, however, is that it is Gen. Chaffee's own statement. It is known that the commanders of the allied forces, when they arranged for the advance from Tien-tsin, had agreed to make Yangtsun the objective. That statement was contained in Gen. Chaffee's telegram from the front, neither the officials at the War or Navy Department are certain. From the wording of the cable the general belief, however, is that it is Gen. Chaffee's own statement. It is known that the commanders of the allied forces, when they arranged for the advance from Tien-tsin, had agreed to make Yangtsun the objective. That statement was contained in Gen. Chaffee's telegram from the front, neither the officials at the War or Navy Department are certain. From the wording of the cable the general belief, however, is that it is Gen. Chaffee's own statement. It is known that the commanders of the allied forces, when they arranged for the advance from Tien-tsin, had agreed to make Yangtsun the objective. That statement was contained in Gen. Chaffee's telegram from the front, neither the officials at the War or Navy Department are certain. From the wording of the cable the general belief, however, is that it is Gen. Chaffee's own statement. It is known that the commanders of the allied forces, when they arranged for the advance from Tien-tsin, had agreed to make Yangtsun the objective. That statement was contained in Gen. Chaffee's telegram from the front, neither the officials at the War or Navy Department are certain. From the wording of the cable the general belief, however, is that it is Gen. Chaffee's own statement. It is known that the commanders of the allied forces, when they arranged for the advance from Tien-tsin, had agreed to make Yangtsun the objective. That statement was contained in Gen. Chaffee's telegram from the front, neither the officials at the War or Navy Department are certain. From the wording of the cable the general belief, however, is that it is Gen. Chaffee's own statement. It is known that the commanders of the allied forces, when they arranged for the advance from Tien-tsin, had agreed to make Yangtsun the objective. That statement was contained in Gen. Chaffee's telegram from the front, neither the officials at the War or Navy Department are certain. From the wording of the cable the general belief, however, is that it is Gen. Chaffee's own statement. It is known that the commanders of the allied forces, when they arranged for the advance from Tien-tsin, had agreed to make Yangtsun the objective. That statement was contained in Gen. Chaffee's telegram from the front, neither the officials at the War or Navy Department are certain. From the wording of the cable the general belief, however, is that it is Gen. Chaffee's own statement. It is known that the commanders of the allied forces, when they arranged for the advance from Tien-tsin, had agreed to make Yangtsun the objective. That statement was contained in Gen. Chaffee's telegram from the front, neither the officials at the War or Navy Department are certain. From the wording of the cable the general belief, however, is that it is Gen. Chaffee's own statement. It is known that the commanders of the allied forces, when they arranged for the advance from Tien-tsin, had agreed to make Yangtsun the objective. That statement was contained in Gen. Chaffee's telegram from the front, neither the officials at the War or Navy Department are certain. From the wording of the cable the general belief, however, is that it is Gen. Chaffee's own statement. It is known that the commanders of the allied forces, when they arranged for the advance from Tien-tsin, had agreed to make Yangtsun the objective. That statement was contained in Gen. Chaffee's telegram from the front, neither the officials at the War or Navy Department are certain. From the wording of the cable the general belief, however, is that it is Gen. Chaffee's own statement. It is known that the commanders of the allied forces, when they arranged for the advance from Tien-tsin, had agreed to make Yangtsun the objective. That statement was contained in Gen. Chaffee's telegram from the front, neither the officials at the War or Navy Department are certain. From the wording of the cable the general belief, however, is that it is Gen. Chaffee's own statement. It is known that the commanders of the allied forces, when they arranged for the advance from Tien-tsin, had agreed to make Yangtsun the objective. That statement was contained in Gen. Chaffee's telegram from the front, neither the officials at the War or Navy Department are certain. From the wording of the cable the general belief, however, is that it is Gen. Chaffee's own statement. It is known that the commanders of the allied forces, when they arranged for the advance from Tien-tsin, had agreed to make Yangtsun the objective. That statement was contained in Gen. Chaffee's telegram from the front, neither the officials at the War or Navy Department are certain. From the wording of the cable the general